We hike through the creek, deep gorges, ravine, forest. and walk through water several times. There are many rivers to cross. You need a pair of good hiking sandals. Experience walking through water you will find it fun and also stop to swimming in the creek.

Enjoy a picnic lunch on the river side. In the afternoon, continue hiking through evergreen jungle. See massive climbing lianas, green bamboo stems, rattan palms and undergrowth plants, Wild ginger and Ferns. Pass through terraced paddy fields.

Arrive in Ban Hua Nam for a homestay with a Karen family. Learn about their culture. Guide and porters prepare delicious Thai meals. Enjoy dinner by candlelight.

Day 2 - Ban Hua Nam >> Ban Huai Po

When you wake up in the morning, pigs are running around under the house and people are setting off to work in the fields. After breakfast, before leaving we take a walk around the village, visit the primary school, and then start the hike again.

On the trail you can hear gibbon's song from far off on the hill side or you may see them swinging from tree to tree. There are many birds too. We pass a small village on the way, where we stop for coffee break. Lunch in the forest you get your food wrapped in banana leaves. This time it's fried noodles. We make bamboo chopsticks and a bamboo cup. You can take it along with you, to use again or to take home as a souvenir.

In the afternoon we climb a bigger mountain with a beautiful view. Arrive in Ban Huai Po, a village settled on high elevation in evergreen forest. Enjoy dinner and stay overnight in the village. You can see the people's simple way of life, under the starry night sky. Get a good night's rest.

Day 3 - Ban Huai Po >> Mae Hong Son

After breakfast, we start 1 hour to the mountain top, walking along a ridge. You see the diversity of flora and fauna in the seasonal forest of Thailand. On high land you see mountain Cycad trees, Palms, Pines, Chestnuts and Wild Orchids. We eat lunch on a place with a panoramic view.

We climb down to Nam Hu Creek. At the bottom of the hill we hike through the creek time to cool down your feet. You can stop to swim in the river again. We finish our trek and the car takes us back to town.
